

3rd China International (KingBonn) New Media Shorts Festival

Shenzhen, China

Global Solicitation Now Opens! Deadline 10th March

We are pleased to announce that the KingBonn Award of the China International New Media Shorts Festival, the only state-recognized award in China, calls for global submission for 2012 edition NOW. After running for 2 editions, the award has attracted about 5000 submissions from over 35 countries. The Award provides a unique opportunity for ambitious filmmakers to gain the privilege to have their films shown to the massive Chinese audiences.

Now we are calling for global submissions in the category of drama, documentary and animation. Any interested individual or organizations are welcome to register on our official website www.kingbonn.cc and download the application forms. To encourage more excellent short films production, the Organizing Committee sets up different prizes for the awarded participants. The highest prize is 300 thousand RMB (Pre-tax). Your shorts could be nominated for the following awards.

The Best Short

The Best Drama

The Best Documentary

The Best Animation

The Best Director

The Best Handset Shorts

Special Jury Award
